

Nomination of Rodney E. Hood to the NCUA Board

PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION SENT TO THE U.S. SENATE

On April 29, 2005 President George W. Bush announced his intention to nominate Rodney E. Hood to be a Board Member at the National Credit Union Administration and his nomination was sent to the U.S. Senate on May 10, 2005.

BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

Rodney E. Hood, of North Carolina currently serves as Associate Administrator of the Rural Housing Service at the U.S. Department of Agriculture. He previously served as Marketing Director and Group Sales Manager for the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company in Durham, North Carolina. Prior to that, Mr. Hood was National Director of the Emerging Markets Group of Wells Fargo. Earlier in his career, he worked for Bank of America as Project Manager for the Community Development Group. Mr. Hood received his bachelor's degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

U.S. SENATE STATUS

Mr. Hood's nomination has been referred to the Committee on Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs and awaits further action.

SENATE CONFIRMATION